

*Daniel Baker College
Legacy Society*

HOWARD PAYNE UNIVERSITY

Daniel Baker College was founded on April 5, 1889, in Brownwood, Texas, and was named in memory of the Rev. Dr. Daniel Baker, a Presbyterian minister. In 1953, Daniel Baker College merged with Howard Payne College, also in Brownwood. The Daniel Baker College Legacy Society was established in August 2000 to honor students and friends who desire to keep alive the wonderful memory of Daniel Baker College. Members of the Daniel Baker College Legacy Society are critical to preserving the memory of the college and gifts may be in the form of bequests in a will, an annuity or a trust and may be designated to the Daniel Baker College Legacy Society.